Welcome

It gives us immense pleasure to welcome all the members of Geriatric Society of India & other medical as well as paramedical personnel involved in geriatric care to attend GSICON 2017.

This is the 14th annual conference of Geriatric Society of India, in which we assemble to exchange the views on elderly care, to interact experts from across the globe & update ourselves with the latest developments in the field of geriatric medicine.

This time the venue is Sri Venkateswara Medical College, Tirupati located in the foot hill of holy shrine of Lord Venkateswara (Balaji). Theme of this year's conference is "Promoting Family Health and Wellness through care of the elderly".

October 2017 will be a time of festivity with pleasant weather during which we have both scientific as well as social feast, in addition to blessings of the Lord.

Looking forward to your active participation in GSICON 2017...

Dr K. ASHOK KUMAR REDDY
Chairman, GSICON 2017
